The Stones of St Augustine’s Abbey, Canterbury

By Geoff Downer

This profusely illustrated 28 page booklet details the building stones used in the construction of the St Augustine's Abbey in Canterbury. The abbey site provides an unparalleled range of medieval building materials both representative of those commonly used in East Kent and accessible to the public.

The booklet includes numerous photographs, maps and a plan of the site showing the location of the stones illustrated.

Copies can be ordered from:
Kent RIGS Group
6 Manor Close
Canterbury, Kent CT1 3XA

Cheques payable to:
Kent RIGS Group

ISBN: 978 0 9561690 0 6
Published 2009

£3.95 (inc P&P)